Some progress on fixed subgroups and fixed points

Qiang Zhang

Xi'an Jiaotong University, China

The fixed subgroup of a group is an active topic in geometric group theory, which has attracted many researchers in the past 50 years and produced many interesting results. In this talk, we will introduce some new progress on fixed subgroups, especially some applications in Nielsen fixed point theory.